financial freedom is one of the best things in life

Invest to equip the young ones with money habits & finance literacy.

Return on investment is many folds

Finance Amigoals

Specialist in Finance Literacy & Discipline

Finance Amigoals' mission is to bring best practices of private banking in wealth management to the general masses and to inculcate good money habits as foundation to financial freedom.

Investing to wealth creation requires:

- Passion for finance +
- Rigorous discipline +
- Good finance literacy habit (inculcated since young)

Having all three are rare. In fact, it is often elusive. Additionally, there are many "money traps" and increasingly more sophisticated. Fools often part with their money. Finance literacy/habit is our best defense.
